

7:00-8:15 Every first
Thursday

Zoom link provided with registration

Talks on the Hill

a free monthly-lecture series for the greater Berkshire community on a variety of environmental and land-use topics.

November 4 MOHAWK TRAIL WOODLANDS PARTNERSHIP

Hank Art discusses the initiatives of the MTWP, a forest-based economic development and conservation project.
Hank Art is a Research Associate at the Center for Environmental Studies and Professor Emeritus at Williams College.

December 2 THE MOHICAN NATION in WILLIAMTOWN

with Christine DeLucia, Bonney Hartley, Hikaru Hayakawa, Jayden Jogwe, and Gwyn Chilcoat Christine DeLucia is an Associate Professor of History at Williams College, Bonney Hartley is the Manager of the Stockbridge-Munsee Mohican Community's Tribal Historic Preservation Office in Williamstown, and Hikaru Hayakawa, Jayden Jogwe, and Gwyn Chilcoat are Williams Student researchers.

January 6 LOST SKI AREAS of the BERKSHIRES presented by Jeremy Davis. From the 1930s to the 1970s, forty-four ski areas were developed throughout the Berkshires. Today there are only seven.

Jeremy Davis is Founder of the New England Lost Ski Areas Project and author.

February 3 ON FARMING 328NORTH

Tu Le discusses stewarding land for farming using intensive methods and sustainable practices.
Tu Le, along with his partner, Matt Bertles, has developed an intensive farming method and Vegetable and Flower CSA on their homestead in Williamstown.

March 3 ON THE WORLD'S GREAT LAKES

Tom Johnson discusses the immense transformation these lakes are undergoing in response to human impact.
Tom Johnson was trained as an oceanographer; he now studies the great lakes of the world.

April 7 PLAYING WELL WITH OTHERS on the APPALACHIAN TRAIL

Cosmo Catalano presents on how the Appalachian Trail came to be in Massachusetts and the many players involved in managing and protecting it.
Cosmo Catalano is a 20-year volunteer for the Appalachian Trail and chairs the Trail Committee at WRL.

Visit www.rurallands.org
to register
WRL at Sheep Hill
671 Cold Spring Road
Williamstown, MA

BECOME A WRL MEMBER!
and help support programs like these.

